

Coleorton Parish Council

Data Protection Policy

1. This Privacy Policy is provided to you by Coleorton Parish Council which is the data controller for your data.
2. Personal data is any information about a living individual which allows them to be identified from that data (for example a name, photographs, videos, email address, or address). Identification can be by the personal data alone or in conjunction with any other personal data. The processing of personal data is governed by legislation relating to personal data which applies in the United Kingdom including the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR") and other local legislation relating to personal data and rights such as the Human Rights Act.
3. The council will process some or all of the following personal data where necessary to perform its tasks:
 - Names, titles, and aliases;
 - Contact details such as telephone numbers, addresses, and email addresses;
 - Where you provide them to us, other information;
4. The council will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal data we hold about you must be:
 - Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
 - Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
 - Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
 - Accurate and kept up to date.
 - Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
 - Kept and destroyed securely including ensuring that appropriate technical and security measures are in place to protect your personal data to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.
5. This section provides information about the third parties with whom the council may share your personal data. These third parties have an obligation to put in place appropriate security measures and will be responsible to you directly for the manner in which they process and protect your personal data. It is likely that we will need to share your data with some or all of the following (but only where necessary):
 - Our agents, suppliers and contractors. For example, we may ask a commercial provider to publish or distribute newsletters on our behalf, or to maintain our database software;
 - On occasion, other local authorities or not for profit bodies with which we are carrying out joint ventures e.g. in relation to facilities or events for the community.
6. You have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

Coleorton Parish Council

When exercising any of the rights listed below, in order to process your request, we may need to verify your identity for your security. In such cases we will need you to respond with proof of your identity before you can exercise these rights.

- The right to access personal data we hold on you
- The right to correct and update the personal data we hold on you
- The right to have your personal data erased
- The right to object to processing of your personal data or to restrict it to certain purposes only
- The right to data portability
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time for any processing of data to which consent was obtained.
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.

For more information, please see our Subject Access Request policy.

7. Transfer of data abroad

We will not transfer data to countries outside the European Economic Area ("EEA").

8. We keep this Privacy Policy under regular review.

The next review is due to take place: May 2019
