

Weekly Construction Update – Friday 24th February 2017

Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Junction 13 – A42/A511/A512 Improvements

THIS WEEK

Pedestrians remain relocated from the footway into the left turn lane with protective barriers in place. The left turn filter into Coalfield Way has remained closed, but will be reopened in time for the weekend. The carriageway widening works in this location are ongoing with the laying of new base and binder bituminous materials. Kerbing and footway works have continued extending towards the roundabout. Carriageway widening works have continued on the eastern verge with the excavation of the existing verge and the installation of Type 1 stone, to form the new carriageway foundation. Off-peak lane closures will be implemented when required.

NEXT WEEK

The installation of the new western kerb-line on the A511 will continue, and the installation of the new eastern kerb-line will commence. On the eastern verge towards the roundabout, footway works will continue to be carried out and excavation works for the new approach to the roundabout will continue on the western verge.

Saturday works will take place on 25th February from 07:00 until lunch time and as previously, traffic flows will be monitored on an ongoing basis and lane closures amended where required. Night time works will commence on Monday 17th February at 8:00 pm, for the purpose of removing existing vegetation from around the roundabout, prior to the commencement of the bird nesting season.
