

Weekly Construction Update – 10th November 2017

Discovery Way, A511 Bypass and Tesco Roundabout Improvements

THIS WEEK

Ducting and Type 1 stone has been installed to accommodate the infrastructure for the new signage lighting on the splitter island. Works have been completed on the construction on the A511 approach to the roundabout from Burton. On the Tesco roundabout, the installation of ducting and the connection of the new drainage has taken place. Works to install the kerb line and drainage on the west widening of Discovery Way has been completed this week, along with the construction of the footway and new crossing. Works have commenced on the roundabout, with the laying of edgings in preparation for the new block paving. The concrete infills on the roundabout have also been completed in preparation for the final surfacing to take place. Ducting installation for the new lighting columns on the Nottingham Road verge is ongoing.

NEXT WEEK

Ongoing works will be carried out on the A511 splitter island on the approach to the roundabout towards Ashby, where block paving will also be laid. Works on the soil bund will continue. Excavation of the existing splitter island on Discovery Way will continue in preparation for the new construction. Ducting works will be ongoing along with the back filling of the verges on the west side of the carriageway.

A42/A511/A512 Flagstaff Roundabout Update

Works have continued installing ducting, cabling and new street lighting columns for the Highways England network on the A42 slip roads along with the installation of some traffic signs.

Next Week

Works on the above will continue.
